

Nominees for RMAA Board

Four positions on the Rocky Mountain Anthropological Association Board of Directors will be filled by secret ballot at the Tenth Biennial Conference in Missoula, October 6-9, 2011. The following have agreed to be nominated for those positions. The four receiving the most votes will be selected to fill those positions. Members who register for the conference will be eligible to vote. Ballots will be distributed along with abstracts and other registration materials at the conference. Please give these nominees your careful consideration and be prepared to vote at the meetings.
